

Notice to competitors

Only notices that amend the RRS or are required by the RRS should be using this process.

Protest committee

Organizing Authority

Race committee

Technical committee

All of the above

The Technical Committee creates the notice to competitors.

The Protest Committee creates the notice to competitors.

The Principal Race Officer or Race Officer creates the notice to competitors.

The Organizing Authority creates the notice to competitors.

Amendment

No

Race Committee Notice

No

Yes

The notice is created in draft format and assigned the next incremental number

After review by another party the notice can be changed to published.

Request flag "L" to be displayed over the numeral number of the notice. This signal must be displayed during the daytime until the next notice is displayed.

The notice is created by the Race Officer using the standard template.

The notice is created in draft format and assigned the next incremental number

After review by another party the notice can be changed to published.

Request flag "L" to be displayed over the numeral number of the notice. This signal must be displayed during the daytime until the next notice is displayed.

The notice can be published.
Examples (Notice of protest by an official, qualifying/final series groupings)